BECCA ANDERSON RETURNS TO URC ACTION THIS WEEKEND IN BAR'S LEAKS SPRINT ENTRY

Eight time URC sprint car feature winner, Becca Anderson of Houston, DE will be returning to sprint car competition with the URC BAR'S LEAKS Sprint Series this weekend. Anderson is well respected in the URC sprint car ranks and recently competed for well over a full season with the nationally known World of Outlaws. Anderson will be driving a second BAR'S LEAKS #17 sprint car in the coming two race weekend for the URC Sprint Series.

On Friday night, August 3rd, the Williams Grove Speedway in Mechanicsburg, PA, will host the second annual Shot Drop/Rislone Sprint Nationals for 360 sprint cars. Defending winner Pat Cannon will be in the field along with some other fifty entries chasing the $4,000 first place prize money.

BAR'S LEAKS, the world's most respected and trusted best selling Stop Leak and cooling system conditioner sponsors the season long URC Sprint Series as well as the Jimmy Martin owned URC sprint car that compete weekly on the URC tour. Anderson would like nothing more than to carry the BAR'S Leaks logo to victory lane in the Shot Drop/Rislone Nationals for 360 Sprints. Along with defending winner Pat Cannon, the list of possible favorites include Chad Layton, Lucas Wolfe and Nate Snyder joined by URC top contenders Curt Michael, Kramer Williamson, Michael Carber, Trevor Lewis, Brian Seidel and Ed Aikin to name a few.

On Friday night at Williams Grove Speedway, the gates will open at 5 PM with race time set for 7:30 PM. The following night, the URC BAR'S LEAKS Sprint Series will head to the Delaware International Speedway with race time set for 7 PM.
