For the seventy-ninth time in Grandview Speedway history, the NAPA Auto Parts Thunder on the Hill Racing Series will return to the popular one-third mile high-banked clay oval in Bechtelsville, PA. On Tuesday night, August 21 the fan favorite event, the Grandview THUNDER 5-25's will be the main attraction. No qualifying events on this night, as more than one-hundred cars from five different divisions turn out to compete in the 5-25's. On the program for their final visit of 2007 is the popular 410 Sprints joined by the 358 NASCAR Modifieds, 600 Sprints, Rolling Thunder Legends and the 600 Modifieds. Gates will open at 5 PM with the first of five exciting feature events taking the green flag at 7:30 PM. Come out early to Grandview Speedway and view many of the go-karts that compete weekly at the Shellhammer's Speedway. Ten top karters will have an opportunity to tour the Grandview Speedway prior to the start of the racing event.

There are a number of stories already in the making for Tuesday night, August 21. First off, in the 410 Sprints, Lucas Wolfe of Mechanicsburg, PA is looking to claim his first event Thunder on the Hill Sprint title. This would stop a long string of domination by drivers like Fred Rahmer, Lance Dewease, Greg Hodnett and Billy Pauch. Wolfe holds a thirteen point advantage over five time Thunder Series Champion Billy Pauch. Also in the chase is Greg Hodnett, Fred Rahmer and Lance Dewease.

Just to spice up the 358 Modified feature event, a special invite was extended to Keith Hoffman of Whitehall, PA. Hoffman will be starting last in the field as he attempts to chase down Duane Howard, Jeff Strunk, MeMe DeSantis, Danny Erb, Mike Gular and Craig VonDohren just to name a few.

Always an exciting division, the RTS Chassis/Rainbow Roofing 600 Sprints will take to Grandview Speedway. Defending winner Pete Skias will be the man to beat along with Ryan Greth, Heath Hehnly, Brett Schonely and Jack Spence. Surprise entries in the 600 Sprints include 410 racers Michael Carber and Steve Buckwalter, URC driver Randy West and Modified favorite Doug Manmiller.

You can expect all the regular planned fun associated with every Thunder on the Hill event. The Inside/Out Promotion will also invite special guest fans an opportunity to watch warm-ups from the infield, Joe the Pizza DUDE will be there to give away pizza, we'll have the live singing of the National Anthem and fireworks on the feature event parade lap make every Thunder Series race a special event.
