TAYLOR & MESSICK DELAWARE STATE SERIES CONTINUES
ROBBIE STILLWAGGON HOLDS OFF ALL CHALLENGERS FOR FIRST CAREER URC WIN SATURDAY NIGHT AT DELAWARE INTERNATIONAL

DELMAR, DE Robbie Stillwaggon of Burlington, NJ drove the race of a life time on his way to his first ever URC BAR'S LEAKS Sprint Series feature win on Saturday night at the Delaware International Speedway. In just his second season of URC sprint car competition, Stillwaggon not only won the feature, he did it in thrilling style holding off Davey Sammons, Michael Carber and Ed Aikin, three drivers that each took a serious shot at taking the win.

Stillwaggon started on the pole and pretty much checked out and ran to hide from the rest of the field. But the typical URC finish was still to unfold. And unfold it did. Early in the race, URC's 2006 Rookie of the Year Davey Sammons made a bid for the lead, in chase of his first career win. Stillwaggon fought back and protected the lead position.

Later in the race, Michael Carber made his run at Stillwaggon, actually taking the lead on lap twenty-three. Stillwaggon fought back like a well seasoned veteran and reclaimed the top spot with Carber spinning in turn three on lap twenty-four. For the final circuit, the master of consistency, Ed Aikin made his bid for the lead. Charging into turn three on the final lap, Aikin pulled along side of Stillwaggon, then lost momentum with Stillwaggon beating the challenge and going on to his first URC win worth $2,000. Stillwaggon became URC sixteenth different feature winner this season in just twenty-two events.

URC continues to deliver strong car count and once again, a field of twenty-six URC sprint turned out for the program. The heat race winners were Midge Miller, Stillwaggon and Scott Pursell as the Don Ott "B" Main was won by Jason Clauss.

In the twenty-five lap feature event, Robbie Stillwaggon was the leader for the first lap as the caution was displayed on lap two for Kramer Williamson who stopped in turn two. On the restart, Stillwaggon was quick off the point with Brian Brittingham in second and Ed Aikin third. The second caution of the event was on lap four, a yellow for Mike Kostic who spun in turn two while exiting the speedway.

When green flag racing resumed, Stillwaggon, Brittingham and Aikin remained the top three. Davey Sammons was on a charge now racing in fifth and firmly set with his eyes on the front runners. By lap ten Sammons was fourth and he moved into second on lap twelve. Joey Biasi then spun, regrouping the field at the halfway mark. One lap later, Randy West and Jeff Davis tangled, displaying the caution flag once again.

Stillwaggon retained his lead role but Sammons was closing with each turn. Sammons made a challenge for the lead but Stillwaggon never gave it up. Like a rocket, Michael Carber was now in the top five and pointing the Bill Gallagher owned 5g right to the front of the pack.

With just five laps remaining, Stillwaggon was the leader followed by Aikin, Carber and Sammons.

With two laps to go, Carber caught Stillwaggon and made the pass for the lead. Stillwaggon never gave up and fought back to regain the top spot. Carber returned the favor with another strong challenge, this time spinning out while entering turn four. Carber also retired to the pits, turning the lead over to Robbie Stillwaggon.

On the restart, with just one lap remaining, Ed Aikin made his one and only bid for the win, diving deep to the inside of Stillwaggon while entering turn three on the final lap. Stillwaggon held his line and went on to take the win. Aikin followed in second with Davey Sammons third as Mark Bitner and Brian Seidel made-up the top five.
