

Ryan Hann Is On a Roll!!!

Ryan had his 3rd point's race at PRP on Saturday, June 7th, 2008.

Ryan walked right through the 15 car, 10-12 year old field again to the finals. In the finals, Jeff dialed an 8.96 on the car, holding .02 so Ryan could drive the top end. Boy did Ryan come through!

He cut a .026 light, pedaled at the top end 2 times and ran a 8.966 on a 8.96 dial to their .133 light and running dead on 9.234 on a 9.23 dial. This is Ryan's 2nd straight win at Pittsburgh Raceway and now he has a 3 round lead over 2nd place in points. He is full of confidence in the car and himself. In the 92 degree heat, he got a well deserved cold water shower from Dad as soon as he got out of the car.

Way to go Ryan!
