CURT MICHAEL LEADS URC TO GRANDVIEW AS VALLEY FORGE INC PA SERIES TIGHTENS IN THE CHASE

The URC Rislone Sprint Series will invade the Grandview Speedway on Saturday night, June 14 for their seventh event of the 2008 season. Curt Michael is the current point leader of the season long title chase as well as the Taylor & Messick Delaware State Series and the Fred's Trailer Parts New Jersey Series. Michael is currently ranked second in the Valley Forge INC PA Series that will be part of the June 14 Grandview event. Last week's feature winner Dave Ely, currently leads the Valley Forge PA Series with just a twenty-nine point advantage over Curt Michael who is currently second in points.

Along with Curt Michael and Dave Ely, third place runner Chris Coyle will also be in the field Saturday night on the hill. Coyle won the URC season finale at Grandview in 2007 and in doing so, secured sponsorship from BPG Racing/Chad Sinon Motorsports. This will be a big opportunity for Coyle to shine at his sponsors home track.

Other drivers on the roster include Robbie Stillwaggon, Davey Sammons, JJ Grasso, Randy West, Brian Seidel and still another Grandview local and former weekly competitor, Ed Aikin.

A series of qualifying heats a "B" Main and 25 lap URC sprint feature will join a complete program of NASCAR Modified Stock car racing all getting underway at 7:30 PM
