

DAVE GABLE ANNOUNCES PLANS TO COMPETE ON THE RISLONE URC SPRINT SERIES TOUR OF 2009

Dave Gable will be returning to URC for a full season on the Rislone Sprint Series. Gable of Reading, PA owns one career victory under the URC banner, scoring that win at the New Egypt Speedway. Gable has been an on and off again competitor with URC, managing to race when his budget could afford him the opportunity. In 2009, it's full speed ahead for this likeable and talented sprint car driver. "I look forward to the upcoming season and getting back to the competitive level that I was at in my rookie year" stated Gable Tuesday afternoon.

In the coming season, Dave Gable will be driving an Eagle chassis powered by a Gaerte power-plant and carrying the number 3. The car is jointly owned by Dave and his father. The Gable #3 will be at the sixty-second season opener for the United Racing Company Sprint Series that will take place at the Bridgeport Speedway on Saturday, April 11.

The Rislone URC Sprint Series will offer a busy schedule with stops not only at Bridgeport Speedway but New Egypt, Delaware International, Grandview, Lincoln, Selinsgrove, Williams Grove, Weedsport, Big Diamond, Georgetown and stop at the Bedford Speedway.
