

Dear Bar's Leaks and Rislone,

During the month of May..... I won!! I had my first victory at Douglas Motorsports Park on the 17th. So I stacked up a few points, since there were so many juniors that weekend! Happiness!

The next weekend (23rd-25th) at Oahe Speedway, I won on the first day. Unfortunately it was only a shootout race....oh well. A win is a win! :)

Then the weekend after that, on the 31st I won again in Douglas on a point's day! I am now leading in points, and man I am happy about that!

I believe my best light so far this season has been a .002! I had a -.0011 as well, but that was red, so it doesn't exactly count. lol

As for things not relating to racing, my 8th grade graduation is on the 9th of June (next Tuesday)! Finally we are getting out of school! Snow days are just one reason I don't particularly care for winter. Sighs... anyhow... my friend Chylea and I are going to be singing "Innocence" by Avril Lavigne, for graduation. I think that's pretty cool! I am really excited!

Wish me luck! :)

Sincerely,
Carly Jo Ellingson
